PUBLIC LIBRARY

To the Citizens of Cornish:

The current year has been one of progress for library activities. Patronage has been fully average and 86 volumes, suited to varied taste and ages, have been added with a total book expenditure of $152.34.

A new system of cataloging is in process of installation. This system is that in general use thro-out the State and in our State Library in Concord. Miss Annabel, head of State Library Commission recommended that we adopt the system and an experienced worker was sent by her to do the work. Maintenance was the only recompense required for the two weeks she worked at the library.

All supplies for cataloging were purchased from our general fund, a part of which supplies are a necessary investment under any cataloging system. A detailed account of this expense is included in the yearly financial report.

Mrs. Lovejoy gave her services, matching hours with the working hours of Miss Barden. Her knowledge of the system is, therefore, sufficient for her to complete the cataloging at her convenience.

Interested friends also assisted in the work, for which the board of trustees express their gratitude.

Another advantage of the process of cataloging is the fact that a complete knowledge of our library content has been acquired by the librarian, and that out-moded volumes have been relegated to storage, while some volumes of ancient print but important as classics, will be replaced in more modern bindings.

Mrs. Lovejoy attended the district library school held for two weeks last summer in Claremont. Instructive and interesting classes in general library training were conducted. Much was gained in general knowledge that will add to Mrs. Lovejoy's service as librarian. In appreciation of her voluntary attendance, the board of trustees presented her with a membership in the American Library Association. This membership affords her helpful literature and helps place Geo. H. Stowell Library "on the map."

Only slight repairs were necessary during the year. The main chimney was relaid from the roof and as an added protection against fire hazard, the fire extinguisher was refilled with an improved filler.

Co-operating with the State Library Commission, we are supplying one volume, "Inheritance" by Phyllis Bentley, to be loaned for a period of three months to Sullivan County Home Demonstration Agent for their rural reading program.

The trustees gratefully acknowledge the following gifts: 3 volumes, Mrs. Robert Barrett; 1 volume, Ford Motor Co.; 1 volume, Dr. Geo. S. Foster; 2 volumes, publishers.

The State Library Commission reports that ours in one of a very few libraries to receive no assistance from town funds. Since investment returns are much less than formerly and our prospective income for the ensuing year correspondingly less, we trust that the voters of Cornish will seriously consider the article included in the warrant which deals with the matter of library support.

ESTHER K. BUGBEE,

Sec.-Treas. of Board of Trustees.

Superintendent's Report

To the Cornish School Board:

I herewith submit my second annual report as your superintendent of schools.

At the opening of school last fall the schools of the east and south parts of Cornish were reorganized into four schools of four grades each. The four upper grades are now taught at the Flat School and at the Chadbourne School, while the four lower grades are taught at the South School and the City School. These four schools take the place of six eight grade schools in the fall of 1933. Last year the South School was closed late in the fall and one transportation added. The Goward School, the Town School, and the Brick School are now closed. This reorganization has had the approval of Commissioner Pringle for the State Board.

The greatest advantage of this reorganization is that it has brought together larger classes for each grade and given more time for each class and for teacher help. There has been a small financial saving in direct costs. It is, and will be less expensive to furnish books and teachers' helps.

If you will refer to my report of last year you will find that I stated that a high school in Cornish would have its advantages and its disadvantages. At the regular district meeting last year it was voted that a special meeting be called in the summer to consider the establishing of a high school. The Cornish School Board was asked to investigate and make a report to that meeting. The Cornish School Board found and were prepared to report that, while a central high school would be good for Cornish, there were not suitable buildings with good location and grounds to be found. There was a strong opposition to the establishing of a high school in Cornish and a vote was taken against such action without hearing the report of the Cornish School Board.

If Cornish owned the buildings, equipment and grounds in the right location an excellent high school could be maintained at a reasonable cost, but the initial costs are far too great. The high school pupils, however, must be considered. We have this year two at Stevens High School, twenty-three at Windsor High School and twenty-nine at Kimball Union Academy. Kimball Union

Academy furnishes transportation to all Cornish pupils and make a logical school center, full tuition is paid at eighty dollars per pupil at Windsor High School under an old contract, and Claremont insists on a one hundred dollar tuition, while the cost of instruction on which generally the price of tuition is based was but fifty-seven dollars and thirty-nine cents, in 1933-34. The total expenditure at Claremont High School per pupil in 1933-34 was $75.06, and this was cut down for Claremont pupils by the high price asked outside pupils to $70.04.

Mr. Stuart Carter, a graduate of Keene Normal School, began work at the Flat School in the fall. He has developed good playground attitudes as well as good classroom work. Miss was transferred from the Goward School to the South School in the fall, but soon left to accept a position at Dover. Her place was filled by Miss Marjorie Ahern, a graduate of Keene Normal School, who has made skillful progress in the largest school in the district. Miss Clarice Zanes, an able experienced normal graduate came to the Centre School at the opening of school. She has a well organized school. Mrs. Jane Dahms, a very strong teacher, was transferred from the Dingleton Hill School to teach the four upper grades at the Chadbourne School. Mrs. Marjorie Kidder has an excellent school at Dingleton Hill, and Mrs. Eva Bernard is continuing her fine work at Tracy School. Miss Ethel Langley, one of our ablest teachers, and one especially prepared to work with smaller children is at the City School. I feel that Cornish has an able, efficient teaching force.

A dental clinic has been a part of the results of the interest and hard work of your nurse, Mrs. Z. L. Hasham. The funds were national, and the low prices and excellent work offered by Dr. Crandall to the school children helped to make the clinic a success. I hope that funds will be made available to continue this good work.

There is one problem that should be studied, but I am not sure that it would be practicable to make any change this year. The Tracy has now twelve pupils of whom five are transported at a cost of $288.00. This makes the total cost of maintaining that school more than $1200.00 a year. The Chadbourne and City Schools are small enough that these pupils would be a real help to them at present, and that pupils from the Tracy district would have the advantages of the larger classes.

I wish to thank the Cornish School Board, the teachers, and citizens of Cornish for their kindness and help.

Respectfully submitted,

WALTER L. MASON.

SCHOOL NURSE'S REPORT

..... The routine inspection of each pupil's hair, scalp, teeth, throat, skin, posture and general hygiene began with the opening of the school year. The use of the Class room Growth and Weight Chart with the periodic weighing, furnishes a strong desire to practice rules which are simple but most important for health and normal growth. The general appearance of the pupils does not indicate suffering for food. There are always a few who need special food. Milk has been provided for those who do not have it at home.

A most successful school dental clinic was held under the Child Health Recovery Program. Under this service the pupils who took advantage of this opportunity received 100 per cent dental correction. Many of the pupils had never before been to a dentist. One wonders what would happen without the aid and interest of the school nurse. One 12 year old boy had 12 fillings, 1 extraction and a cleaning, while another had need of 7 fillings besides 3 extractions and a cleaning.

Total number of pupils examined by dentist	95
Total number of extractions	33
Total number of fillings	163
Total number of cleanings	58

The complete plan for this dental work is to cover every school every year.

Pupils were accompanied by the nurse to eye clinics, tuberculosis and tonsil clinics. Home visits were made to instruct parents and to follow up defects.

Total number home visits	69
Total number schools visits	89

I wish to thank the School Board, the teachers, local officials and parents for their splendid co-operation.
